2015 Dance Festival Series - On Thursday 4 June I had the absolute pleasure of watching as Eric M and Sam S, (3/6B) and Lachlan M and Joseph H (2/3T) took the stage at Bankstown Sports Club as a part of the Shining Stars Ensemble. The boys performed with confidence and great talent to “Magnificent Men.” Boys you should be very proud of your performance.

A big THANK YOU to Ms Brien for all of your organisation. It was a truly memorable, fantastic night.

Minions Movie Family Movie Night at Event Cinemas, Macarthur.

ROAD SAFETY: Students Exiting on Valley Road - Safety on and around roads is very important. In recent weeks there have been several near misses on the Valley Road exit where students have run across the road without checking for traffic. Please remind your children about safety on the roads.

Parent Information Sessions - Thank you to the parents that attended the Information Session this week. We will be having regular sessions that are aimed at providing you with information and resources that you will be able to use at home with your children. The next Parent Session is on Wednesday 18 June and we will be looking at Maths and what you can do at home to help your child with Maths.

Uniform Feedback - Thank you to all of the students, parents and carers that completed our uniform surveys recently. In total, we had feedback from over 200 surveys completed. Thank you to everyone who completed a survey, your feedback will help inform future additions and changes to our uniform.
Winter weather - The winter weather has certainly arrived. It is important that all students come to school wearing appropriate winter school uniform. Several students are coming to school wearing coloured jackets which are not school uniform. It is important that all students wear their full school uniform every day.

Zone Cross Country - Congratulations to

Ruby H 4-5Z,
Nikola S 3-4E and
Jordan T 5-6W

who all came 4th in the races and now go through to the next level of Regional Cross Country on Thursday 11 June at Hurlstone Agricultural High School, Glenfield.

Congratulations to the students who represented our school at the Zone Cross Country last week.

The majority of students represented the school in a respectful, positive manner. A reminder that students who demonstrate behaviour that is not appropriate will not be invited to attend future events.

Office Furniture - The school has some office furniture that it has for sale to the community. These items include filing cabinets, desks and other items. They are in good condition, would be great to help set up an office space or homework area for your child. Items start from $5 per item.

Items will be available at the Museum Markets on Sunday 14 June or from school this week.

Unfortunately we will not be able to deliver the items home for you.

2015 information for parents and carers

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL DATA COLLECTION?

The Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability (the national data collection) is an annual collection that counts the number of school students with disability and the level of reasonable educational adjustment they are provided with.

The national data collection will count students who have been identified as receiving an adjustment to address a disability under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (the DDA). The DDA can be accessed from the ComLaw website at www.comlaw.gov.au.

WHAT IS THE BENEFIT FOR MY CHILD?

The aim of the national data collection is to collect better information about school students with disability in Australia.

This information will help teachers, principals, education authorities and families to better support students with disability to take part in school on the same basis as students without disability.

The national data collection is an opportunity for schools to review their learning and support systems and processes to continually improve education outcomes for their students with disability.

WHY IS THIS DATA BEING COLLECTED?

All schools across Australia collect information about students with disability. But the type of information currently collected varies between each state and territory and across government, Catholic and independent school sectors.

When implementing the national data collection, every school in Australia will use the same method to collect information. Therefore, a government school in suburban Sydney will collect and report data in the same way as a Catholic school in country Victoria and an independent school in the Northern Territory.

The information provided through the national data collection will enable all Australian governments to better target support and resources to benefit students with disability. The data will help schools to better support students with disability so that they have the same opportunities for a high quality education as students without disability.

WHAT ARE SCHOOLS REQUIRED TO DO FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITY?

All students are entitled to a quality learning experience at school.

Schools are required to make reasonable adjustments, where needed, to assist students with disability to access and participate in education free from discrimination and on the same basis as other students.

These responsibilities are outlined in the DDA and the Disability Standards for Education 2005 (the Standards). The Standards require educators, students, parents and others (e.g. allied health professionals) to work together so that students with disability can participate in education. The Standards can be accessed via the ComLaw website at www.comlaw.gov.au.

WHAT IS A REASONABLE ADJUSTMENT?

A reasonable adjustment is a measure or action taken to help a student with disability access and participate in education on the same basis as students without disability. Reasonable adjustments can be made across the whole school setting (e.g. ramps into school buildings), in the classroom (such as adapting class lessons) and at an individual student level (e.g. extra tuition for a student with learning difficulties).

WHAT INFORMATION WILL BE COLLECTED?

Every year your child’s school will collect the following information for each student with a disability:

- the student’s level of education (i.e. primary or secondary)
- the student’s level of adjustment
- the student’s broad type of disability.

The information collected by schools will be provided to all governments to inform policy and programme improvement for students with disability.

WHO WILL BE INCLUDED IN THE NATIONAL DATA COLLECTION?
The definition of disability for the national data collection is based on the broad definition under the DDA.

For the purposes of the national data collection, students with learning difficulties such as dyslexia or auditory processing disorder as well as chronic health conditions like epilepsy, diabetes or asthma, that require active monitoring by the school, may be included.

WHO WILL COLLECT INFORMATION FOR THE NATIONAL DATA COLLECTION?
Teachers and school staff will identify the number of students with disability in their school and the level of reasonable adjustment they are provided based on:

- consultation with parents and carers in the course of determining and providing reasonable adjustments
- the school team’s observations and professional judgements
- any medical or other professional diagnosis
- other relevant information.

School principals are responsible for ensuring the information identified about each student is accurate.

HOW WILL MY CHILD’S PRIVACY BE PROTECTED?
Protecting the privacy and confidentiality of all students and their families is essential. Personal details such as student names or other identifying information will not be provided to local or federal education authorities.

IS THE NATIONAL DATA COLLECTION COMPULSORY?
All education ministers agreed to full implementation of the national data collection from 2015. This means that all schools must now collect and report information annually on the number of students with disability in their care and the level of adjustment provided to them.

Information about the arrangements that may apply to your school in relation to this data collection is available from your child’s school principal and the relevant education authority or association of independent schools.

Even if your child’s information is not included in the national data collection, the school is still required to provide support to your child with education needs.

FURTHER INFORMATION
Contact your child’s school if you have further questions about the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability and how it may involve your child.

An e-learning resource about the Disability Standards for Education 2005 is freely available for the use of individuals, families and communities at http://resource.dse.theeducationinstitute.edu.au/.

Dear Parents/Carers,

On behalf of the P&C Association I would like to welcome you and your family to another year at Campbelltown East Public School. I trust that you have had an enjoyable start to the school year.

The purpose of this letter however, is to gain your support in raising funds for the children at the school. As you know, costs continue to escalate in educating our children to the standard we expect. This contribution is a small but essential part of the role that parents/carers can play. As a result, the P&C have set this year’s figure at $25.00 per child or $35.00 per family. I would like to stress that payment of the contribution is voluntary, but the money is sorely needed! All monies raised through contributions goes to the school, not the P&C Association.

Finally, while taking the opportunity to stress the importance of your contribution to the school’s finances, all parents/carers and their children are assured that no embarrassment will occur if you are unable or unwilling to pay the contribution. Partial payment is also welcomed.

Please send your money as soon as possible to the school office and a receipt will be returned to you shortly after.

I hope you are able to assist the school to best provide for your child/ren.

Yours sincerely,

Melissa Dimitrislis

HEAD LICE: INFORMATION, TREATMENT AND CONTROLLING.

WHAT ARE HEAD LICE?
Head lice are tiny (2-3mm long) wingless insects that can attach to a person's hair, where it feeds on extremely small amounts of blood drawn from the scalp. Lice aren't dangerous and they don't spread disease. Lice eggs (nits) are seen more commonly than lice in children's hair.

Signs and Symptoms.
- Severe itching of the scalp
- Nits (tiny oval specks of greyish white or yellow white on the hair shaft)
- Lice (reddish brown tiny insects on the hair shaft)
- Sometimes there are no signs or symptoms.

What can we do?
Check your child's hair regularly, particularly behind the ears and at the base of the skull.

If you see lice or eggs (nits) your child should be treated. Suitable preparations can be purchased at your local pharmacy.

Check the rest of the household for head lice and only treat if they are detected. Treat everyone affected on the same day.

A way to help detect lice is to use conditioner on dry brushed hair, comb it through then wipe the comb onto a paper towel or tissue, look on the tissue and the comb for lice or eggs. Conditioner stuns lice for 20 minutes which allows you to comb thoroughly through the hair.

Prevention.
- Avoid head to head contact.
- Don't share brushes, combs or hats.
- Discourage children from playing with each other's hair.
- Keep long hair tied back or plaited.
- Check hair regularly, children and adults.

Is a Second Treatment Necessary?
In almost all cases a second treatment is needed as no head lice treatment kills 100% of the eggs. You must repeat treatment on day 7 with the same product. If lice are found at the second treatment and they are killed by this treatment, you must then re-treat within 7 days or use the comb and conditioner method to check for lice.

Helpful Hints
- Do not use a conditioner on hair before or after treatment.
- Do not blow dry hair after treatment as the heat may inactivate the treatment.
- Do not wash the hair for one or two days after the treatment.
When Treatment Does Not Work

This can be caused by:

- Not using the treatment exactly as the directions say.
- Not repeating the treatment after 7 days.
- You may have caught head lice again from someone else.

Life Cycle

!Life Cycle of The Body Louse

Note: Lice take several blood meals daily in larval stages and as adults.

Treatment Warnings

- Get advice from your doctor or pharmacist before using treatments on pregnant or breast feeding women, people with sensitive skin and infants under 12 months.
- Keep the treatment away from eyes, mouth and nose.
- Only use treatments if there are live eggs or lice.
- Do not use treatment to try to prevent lice.
- The person giving the treatment should wear gloves.
- The hair should be left to dry after treatment without using heat.

1 In and out of the car

To comply with national child restraint laws, your child should be restrained in the car as follows:

0 – 6 months
Approved rearward-facing child car seat

6 months – 4 years
Approved rearward-facing or forward-facing child car seat

4 – 7+ years
Approved forward-facing child car seat or booster seat.

Make a rule that every child passenger must be securely buckled into a seatbelt or child car seat before you start the car.

A sleeping child must remain firmly buckled up while the car is in motion.

Reward your child with lots of praise for good road safety behaviour.

Assist your young child to buckle up – always check the buckle and make sure the belt is not twisted.

Ensure your children always get in and out of the car through the ‘safety door’. This is the rear kerb side door of the car.

Never allow children to get out of the car on the traffic side.

When possible, children should remain in the car until an adult opens the ‘safety door’. This helps ensure that children get out of the car safely.

Children aged between four and seven years cannot travel in the front seat of a vehicle with two or more rows, unless all other back seats are occupied by children younger than seven years in a child car seat.

A child that is properly secured in an approved child car seat is less likely to be killed or injured in a car crash than one who is not.

NEVER leave a child of any age in a vehicle without supervision. A small child may rapidly suffer from dehydration, heat exhaustion and consequent organ failure. Older children could play games that may lead to danger.
