Dear Parents/Carers

Campbelltown East Public School will be holding a Reward Day for all students who were not placed on a level during Term 2. Students will be participating in a series of fun activities at Waminda Oval. This event will be on Monday 22 June 2015. Students will be walking to Waminda Oval and back to CEPS supervised by staff. Students will leave school at 12.00pm and return to school by 3pm.

When permission is not granted for students who qualify, activities will be held at school so that all students participate.

Students who were on a level during Term 2 will continue their normal school day.

Disclaimer: Receipt of this note does NOT guarantee your child will take part as school records will be checked for qualification.

Please complete the form below and return it to the blue box in the office foyer by Thursday 18 June 2015.

Regards
